

Policy on Code of Business Conduct and Ethics

Preamble

This Code of Business Conduct and Ethics (the “Code”) sets forth legal and ethical standards of conduct for Directors and employees constituting Senior Management Personnel who shall mean the officers and personnel of the listed entity who are members of its core management team, excluding the Board of Directors, and shall also comprise all the members of the management one level below the Chief Executive Officer or Managing Director or Whole Time Director or Manager (including Chief Executive Officer and Manager in case they are not part of the Board of Directors) and shall specifically include the functional heads, by whatever name called and the persons identified and designated as Key Managerial personnel, other than the board of directors of Nesco Limited (“Nesco” or the “Company”) and its subsidiaries and ensures compliance with legal requirements of the SEBI (Listing Obligations and Disclosure Requirement) Regulations, 2015.

1. Guidelines for Conduct

Each Director and Senior Management Personnel should seek to use due care in the performance of his/her duties, be loyal to the Company and act in good faith and in a manner the Directors and the Senior Management Personnel reasonably believes to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Company.

Director and Senior Management Personnel should:

- dedicate sufficient time, and attention to the Company to ensure diligent performance of his/her duties and responsibilities; and
- seek to comply with all applicable laws, regulations, confidentiality obligations and corporate policies.

2. Honesty and Integrity

- Directors and Senior Management Personnel shall conduct their activities, with honesty, integrity, and fairness.
- Directors and Senior Management Personnel will act in good faith, responsibility, with due care, competence, and diligence, without allowing their independent judgment to be subordinated.
- Directors and Senior Management Personnel will act in best interests of the Company and fulfill their fiduciary obligations.
- Directors and Senior Management Personnel must not take unfair advantage of anyone through manipulation, concealment, abuse of privileged information, misrepresentation of material facts or any other unfair practice.

3. Avoidance of conflict of interests

All Directors and Senior Management Personnel shall not engage in any business, relationship, employment, or activity, which may conflict with the interest of the Company or that interferes with the performance or responsibility to the Company or is otherwise in conflict with or prejudicial to the Company.

- Directors and Senior Management Personnel should avoid conducting Company business with a relative or a firm/company in which a relative/related party is associated in any significant role.
- A Director and the Senior Management Personnel who has an actual or potential conflict of interest, including any of the situations described above, must disclose to the Board:
  - (1) the existence and nature of the actual or potential conflict of interest;
  - (2) all facts known to him/ her regarding the transaction that may be material to a judgment about whether to proceed with the transaction. The Director or the Senior Management Personnel may proceed with the transaction only after receiving approval from the Board.
- The Company feels that serving on the Boards of Directors of other companies may raise substantial concerns about potential conflict of interest. And therefore, all Directors must report/disclose such relationships to the Board on an annual basis. It is felt that service on the Board as a director of competitors is not in the interest of the Company and hence such a director or the Senior Management Personnel must make the Board aware of such a situation before accepting the directorship of such a company.
- No Director or Senior Management Personnel or Director may use Company's name, property, proprietary or confidential information or goodwill for personal gain or for the gain of others.
